

Advertising Sales Representative

Morris Multimedia has an immediate opening with our sales team in an established territory in Hinesville, GA. Prior media sales is a plus but if are a highly disciplined, independent, entrepreneurial, confident, well organized self-starter we want to meet you! We will work with the right individual to create the right position for you - contract sales, commission sales, or salary + commission.

This position will be responsible for prospecting, identifying opportunities, building new business relationships and generating revenue for print and online publications. Focusing on growing existing accounts and acquiring new clients, this position will be primarily placing outbound sales calls, conducting face-to-face meetings, and making sales presentations.

At Morris Multimedia, we publish a network of community newspapers, websites and magazines in Liberty and Bryan counties and at Ft. Stewart/Hunter AAF that deliver an engaged and diverse consumer audience to local businesses. Equal opportunity employer. Benefits include auto and phone allowances, 401K, medical, dental and vision.
